Mr. Dregge Explaining His Side of the Dalton Case.

SAYS HE WAS SIMPLY A FRIEND

He Explains One Letter and Denies Ever Receiving Others--His Visits to Daiton's House on Business.

Judge Adait's court was crowded all day yesterday by persons eager to listen to the details of the Dalton Dregge case. The plaintiff's side of the case was closed at noon, and Mr. Wesselius. Mr. Dregge's attorney, moved to dismess the case as there had been no evidence supporting the declaration, which charges Mr. Dregge with being criminally intimate with Mrs. Dalton. Mr. Dregge was not satisfied to have the case disminsel, as he said he wished to be sween and explain all the circumstances of the case. Mr. Wesselius withdrew the motion, and Mr. Droppe was sworn. He told of his business re-Intions with Mr. Dulton, who resided at Hobart. Mr. Dulton was cutting pine for him, and he visited Hobert opce in two weeks. He nearly always stopped at Mr. Dulton's as the hotel accommo dations were not first class. Mr. Dalton's office was in his residence, but his mill was four miles away. Once he could not get a horse to take him to the mill and he recomed at the house all day until Mr. Dalton came home. He gave Mrs. Dalton a pair of braccieta. When asked what they cost he exented a laugh by saying: "They would not have counted for much here in the city, but in that locality they would be considered a very nice pres-The pleinfull had shown that he bought a very nice haby carriage for Mrs. Dal-ton. He said he did that on the request of Mrs. Bulton, as he frequently bought things and sent to her which charged up on the accounts. He said riage. Requesting a letter, which it is elumest Mrs. Dalton wrote, addressing him as "Dear Juck," he sold he never saw it before. He received a letter from Mrs. Dulton while she was in Mil waskee, stating that she was in trouble and wished to see him. Until that time in the Dulton family.

Arrested a Brute.

Tonato Esse, an Italian living at No. 250 Legan street, was arrested yesterday asternoon on complaint of his wife, who charges him with criminal intimacy with his daughter Minnie, a pretty Miss of 16. Mrs. Euro was married once be fore and Minnie was her first husband's child. Ezzo is a loafer and Mrs. Ezzo-has been forced to go out washing and scrubbing. While she was away the heute took advantage of the child. is now in a delicate condition. Ezzo waived examination in police court and was held for trial. The penalty for the erims with which he is charged may be as high as twenty years imprisonment.

Divorce Case Dismissed.

Leonard Musterdyke tried hard to get a divorce from Ermina Musterdyke in the superior court yesterday. He swore that his wife was lazy and would not get up and get his breakfast but would he in bed and swear at him when he called her. Contradictory evidence was introduced sufficient to convince Judge Burlingame that there was no cause, and he dismissed the bill. He was so thoroughly satisfied that he would not allow the attorneys to argue the

It is Strange
That people suilering from Piles will endure them for years or submit to dangerous, painful, cruei and expensive surgical operations, when all the time there is a painless, certain, lasting cure, which gives instant relief and costs but a trifle. It is called the Pyramid Pile Cure and can be found at all drug stores. Any druggist will get it for you if you esk druggist will get it for you if you ask him.

Deserving Praise. We desire to say to our citizens that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price if satisfac-tory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Peck Bros., Druggists.
